

2027 CALL FOR PAPERS

AFRICA SOCIETY OF EVANGELICAL THEOLOGY

AFRICAN CHRISTIANITY IN A WORLD OF VIOLENCE

DATE : 12-13 MARCH 2027

LOCATION : TBA

A Call for Papers

The Africa Society of Evangelical Theology invites papers to be presented on the topic of “African Christianity in a World of Violence.” Presenters can approach this topic from theological, missiological, biblical, philosophical, historical, educational, apologetical, practical theological and cultural perspectives.

TOPICS MIGHT INCLUDE BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO:

- Gospel in violent contexts
- Discipling in an age of violence
- Christianity and crusades
- Scriptural response to violence
- Martyrdom/Martyrdom in contemporary times
- Children in a violent age
- Trauma and healing
- Youth in a world of violence
- Marriage and family in violent times
- Religious persecution
- ATR and other religious/cultural perspectives on violence
- Economic violence
- Environmental violence
- Peace in adversity
- Eco-justice
- Marginalization and violence
- Pacifism
- Christian and resilient Africa
- Emotional and other types of violence
- Mission in an age of violence
- Church in violent times
- Abuse in church
- Revival in violent times
- Greed in destruction of human environment
- Africa’s natural wealth and its related violence
- Wars in light of Scripture
- Peacebuilding

To respond to this Call, please develop a 300 word (+/-) abstract and click on the following link (), fill out the form and hit “submit” at the end. Deadline for submission : 31 July 2026. For any enquiries on this CALL FOR PAPERS please email Prof. David Ngaruiya on aseteditors@gmail.com asetconference.com

aseteditors@gmail.com asetsecretary@gmail.com asettreasurer@gmail.com